

Weekend of Music in Motion

Sign Art Ministry:

SAM is a not-for-profit organization established to showcase local Deaf and hearing artists skilled in American Sign Language and music. SAM has been established to unite area churches and to bring us together for praise and worship, to socialize and network, and to fully celebrate the beautiful language of American Sign.

Weekend Event:

A weekend of Christian ASL entertainment and learning for everyone, signers and non-signers! Ronaldo Feliciano, Deaf pastor and music director of Grace Bible Deaf Church, Tampa Florida, is the special weekend guest. Ronaldo uses American Sign Language incorporated with music and drama to create a theatrical performance guaranteed to delight and inspire. Ronaldo Feliciano is an outreach ministry of the Master's Silent Sign.

Friday, June 24, 7:00-9:30 PM

Music in Motion ASL concert: a collection of Christian songs, such as traditional hymns, southern gospel, and contemporary praise and worship. The opening show, 7:00 – 8:00 PM, is a variety of local Deaf and hearing Sign Artists performing songs in sign language; after intermission the featured Sign Artist, Ronaldo Feliciano, performs from 8:30 - 9:30 PM.

Saturday, June 25, 9:00 AM -1:30 PM

Music in Motion ASL workshop: it is like a choreographed dance! Adding the beautiful language of American Sign to music is inspirational to watch. This workshop will focus on putting Christian music into motion by creatively incorporating ASL. Ronaldo Feliciano is the workshop presenter.

Event Location:

Faith Promise Church, Pellissippi Campus, 10740 Faith Promise Lane, Knoxville, TN 37931

Purpose:

The weekend event is to promote Deaf awareness by showcasing American Sign Language in its artistic form. It is a networking opportunity for area churches, organization, and businesses interested in tapping into the Deaf community. Partnership opportunities are available for Friday night's concert which will include a networking room to promote services, events, and products. SAM invites Deaf and hearing churches and vendors partnership opportunities and provides networking tables.
